

Pondicherry - Spring 2010

The experimental interfaith community in Auroville was started as an outgrowth of Sri Aurobindo's teachings. The golden building, the Matra Mandir, is the heart and soul of this community.

A woman in Pondicherry who had recently become a Christian wanted to discuss her faith with Susan.

A member of the Sri Aurobindo ashram taught Susan the vision of its founder, and his spiritual collaborator "The Mother."
